

Christ is King, but not like the kings of history and of grandeur and wealth.

We know that from our salvation history. We know it from the biblical story.

We know it from our hymns. We worship a king who not only sits on a throne but walks daily with the least of all the people in the kingdom.

We worship a king who chooses love over wealth, who influences by giving rather than demanding, and whose power is not over and against us but in us and through us.

Christ's crown is of thorns; Christ's throne a cross. Christ is powerless; Christ is vulnerable. Christ our King is servant of all.

"Welcome to worship! We're glad you're here with us this morning. A video devotional based on the same scriptures and sermon topic is available on our Church website and Facebook page.

Are you a CRAFTY person? Do you enjoy knitting, crocheting, cross-stitching or sewing? Or just enjoy an afternoon of conversation with friends? The Craft and Conversation group at First Presbyterian has resumed our meetings. We meet on the 2nd and 4th Friday of each month in the John Currie Room at 1 p.m. We would love to have you join us!

Some of us begin making our crafts of choice after the Christmas holiday season is over. We accumulate our items and in the Fall share with the Seafarers organization (scarves and hats), various charities and schools with items of warmth (hats/mitts/socks/sweaters etc.). Unfortunately, we are not able to have our usual tea and goodies at this time. We also ask that you wear a mask and we will practice social distancing. The room will be sanitized before and after our meeting.
